Left Slip Early. The super-submersible was warped out of her slip at 1:30 this morning and towed down the harbor by two tugs owned by the T. A. Scott Wrecking Company, sub-agent for the Eastern Forwarding Company. It was believed she would pass the three-mile limit about daylight.

The tugs were still escorting the about daylight.

The tugs were still escorting the Doutschland as she passed the United States cruiser Columbia in the lower harbor. Her cargo includes $2,000,000 worth of crude rubber, nickel, sinc, and silver bars, and several sacks of mail from the German embassy at Washington.

The undersea boat's escorts had orders to let her go it alone somewhere near the three-mile limit off shore, as was done after she left after her first trip to American shores.

The Deutschland arrived at New Londow just sixteen days ago, without escort. The cargo she brought in was variously estimated at about $10,000,000 worth of dyestuffs, chemicals, and securities.

AMERICAN WRITER'S PASSPORT TAKEN UP

D. T. Curtin Went to Germany for British Paper.

LONDON, Nov. 17 .- D. Thomas Curtin, a newspaper man of Boston, now with the Northoliffe papers here, was deprived yesterday of his American passport by Ambassador Page.
Curtin is accused of violating his passport in going to Germany in November, 1915, ostensibly as a representative of American magazines, but chiefly as a representative of the Northeliffe papers.

In the latter capacity he obtained in Northeliffe papers.

In the latter capacity he obtained information which he has used in a series of articles published here. In one of his articles Curtin stated that what Northeliffe wanted was, among other things, "to obtain as much military and naval information as possible."
The American ambassador summoned Curtin and demanded his passport, which Curtin was obliged to give up.

The ambassador takes the position that the passport was obtained on false representation to the State Department when Curtin, in order to get it, said that the purpose of his trip was to write articles for America, while he actually acted as an investigator for the Northcliffe press.

Yale Freshman Held for Death of Auto Victim

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 17 .- Coroner Ell Mix has decided that Charles Whituey, a freshman in the Yale Sheffield

hey, a freshman in the Yale Sheffield Scientific School, was criminally responsible for the accident last Saturcay when an automobile he was driving killed Antonio Morcha.

According to the testimony of Whitney's companions, Larry Alleryce and John Grant, also Sheffield freshmen, the party had had several drinks within two hours of the accident, and did not realize that they had struck Morcha until Whitney had difficulty in steering the machine some moments afterward and found the torso of the dead man's body wedged behind a spare tire on the running board.

HOW TO BE RID OF DISGUSTING DANDRUFF

The only way to be permanently rid of discusting, untidy dandruff is to correct, its cause. Shampooing merely connects the scalp for a few days, then the scales form again as thick as ever. To destroy the dandruff germ and get rid of dandruff for good, part the hair and apply a little of the genuine Parisian Eage directly on the bare scalp, and rub it in with the finger tips for a few minutes until absorbed by the walls. You will surely be amazed at the result of even one application for your hair and scalp will look and feel to per cent better.

Only a few days' massage with Parisian Sage are needed to destroy the germs that cause the dandruff to form. The scalp becomes healthy, the hair will grow better and show more life and vitality, and you need never be troubled by dandruff again. Faded, dull or lifeless hair is quickly restored to beauty by this simple process, which is absolutely harmless, and will not stain the hair or make it greasy.

Farisian Sage can be obtained from O'Ponnell's Drug Store and druggists everywhere. It is not expensive.—Advt.

SAYS IDEALS OPEN WAY TO SUCCESS

Washington Chapter, Institute of Banking, Hears Address.

"Ideals and Enthusiasm" was the subject of an address delivered before the Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking by John G. Jones, of the New York University School of Commerce, at the versity School of Commerce, at the Willard Jast night.

"By your attendance here tonight, when there is a counter attraction outside," said Mr. Jones, referring to the Wilson home coming parade," you show your determination to center your ideals on all that is right and fair, and to help steer this Government through the most frouble-some period in its history.

Mr. Jones asserted that Mr. Wilson was chosen for the second term, not because he had money, but because he posesed ideals; that Mr. Hughes was selected as its candidate by the Republican party not because of his money possessions but because he held ideals.

He declared that where the man with money may rise, the man with ideals always rises higher. That the man who works for his ideals will win over the man who works by the time-clock and for his pay envelope. Roy L. Neuhauser, presided at last night's meeting. A musical program followed the speeches of the evening.

WEIGHTMAN THIRD

Wires Friends Here of His Suc- Testimony on Conditions cess in Greatest American Motor Derby.

"Third in the Vanderbilt cup race; not so bad for a beginner, eh?" Weightman, millionaire William horseman of Washington and Virnorseman of washington and virginia, who several months ago decided to go in for motor race driving, announced to his friends in the Capital by this laconic telegram today that he had almost realized the ambition of his life—to finish in the lead of Amarica's greatest motor derby, run this year at Santa Maria, Cal.

Beaten by Veterans.

Weightman was beaten out in the great classic, in which all former speed records for automobiles were broken, by Dario Resta and Earl Cooper, two veterans at the wheels of racing cars. Resta won the race for the second successive time and broke the Vanderbilt automobile road record, with an average speed of 86.98 miles an hour for the 294 miles; set a new world's road race record and took the lead in the American Automobile Association's $13,506 contest for the title of "champion driver of America." The champion's time was $122.48-4. Cooper and Weightman each broke the previous world road race record with an average of 78.72 miles an hour. Cooper's time was $3.50.40.4 and Weightman's was Nineteen Started. Beaten by Veterans.

Nineteen Started. Nineteen drivers started the long grind over the 8.401 mile course, before an audience of thousands banked high on audience of thousands banked high on temporary bleachers facing the ocean on the straightaway.

Weightmus is as much of a Washingtonian as he is a Virginian, visiting here several days of each week from his estate near Warrenton, Va. He is an ardent poloist and an enthusiast in the raising and development of thoroughbred farm and racing stock.
